

EASTER

ACTIVITY | JESUS' SACRIFICE

SIMON SAYS "HE IS ALIVE!"

In this activity, your child will play an Easter version of Simon Says. This will be a fun way for them to remember some of the key story points from Easter.

DIRECTIONS

PREP

1. No supplies or prep needed for this activity.

DO

1. Designate someone to be Simon.
2. Explain the rules of Simon Says to your child. They need to pay attention to when Simon says the phrase "Simon says" and only do the action if Simon says to do it.
3. Give Easter themed actions for your child to do. Actions like:
 - Jump up high because He has risen
 - Turn your hands into donkey ears
 - Wiggle your fingers like palm leaves
 - Stretch your arms out like a cross
 - Make prayer hands and pray like Jesus
 - Shake your finger no, no, no! like the Jewish leaders
 - Shout He is alive!

SUPPLIES NEEDED

No Supplies
Needed

BIBLE CONNECTION

Jesus is risen. He is alive.

That's what Easter is about!

This activity helps us remember the Easter story. We can believe in the Easter story; it's the true story of Jesus and God's love for us.